ADVANTAGEHEALTH CORPORATION LAUNCHES NEW CORPORATE FITNESS PRODUCTS WEBSITE

Bloomington, MN – March 2009. AdvantageHealth Corporation announced the unveiling of their upgraded fitness products website. Corporate Fitness Products is an easy-to-use site that offers the latest in home and commercial grade equipment. “You will find all your fitness and wellness needs at Corporate Fitness Products. We offer a wide range of strength, cardio, rehabilitation and performance tools to help you achieve your fitness goals,” states AdvantageHealth Co-Founder Mike Olson. “We are proud to offer top-of-the-line products at great prices.”

Corporate Fitness Products was developed as a way for community centers, schools, corporations and home users to get quality exercise equipment without a lot of expense or hassle. The website contains detailed descriptions, as well as bright, clear photos of every product. This site is user friendly, offering general product categories that break down into sub-categories, to make finding what you are looking for easier. Products range from music and DVDs to pedometers and hand weights. Corporate Fitness Products offers monthly specials and quantity discounts and is glad to work with organizations and companies to offer the best deals for their employees.
