ADVANTAGEHEALTH CORPORATION CHOSEN TO BE CORPORATE HEALTH SYSTEMS' PREFERRED PROVIDER OF WORKSITE HEALTH PROMOTION

Bloomington, MN – January, 2007. AdvantageHealth is pleased to announce that they have been chosen by Corporate Health Systems to be their preferred provider of health promotion for their clients. “The philosophy of Corporate Health Systems exemplifies the beliefs that AdvantageHealth is grounded in”, stated Kristine Keykal, Co-founder of AdvantageHealth. “We strive to exceed our clients’ expectations and are industry leaders. We view partnerships like this necessary to achieve our business strategy goals.” Health promotion services provided by AdvantageHealth include health risk appraisals, preventive screenings, wellness seminars and behavior change programs.

“In our quest to work with our clients on maintaining their beliefs, integrity and at the same time working to minimize their cost, we feel one of our best approaches is to work with the health of the health plan members. In this quest, we have realized that there are many ideas, programs and options to consider and are beyond one entities reach, this is why we have teamed up with AdvantageHealth Corporation. They offer us the capacity to reach into common, as well as unique areas,” stated Robert F. Hanlon, President of Corporate Health Systems.

About Corporate Health Systems
